Sun rises tomorrow at 5:40 and sets at 6:27.
High water at 8:17 a. m. and 8:42 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section partly cloudy and warmer tonight; Tuesday partly cloudy; moderate southerly winds.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Travers took place from the residence, 519 Queen street, yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends of the deceased. Mount Vernon Council, No. 1, Daughters of America, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral. The pallbearers were Messrs. Sylvester Breen, Chas. Kell, Wm. McQueen, Albert McCuen, Herbert Knight and Julian Knight and the services were conducted by Rev. W. F. Watson, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The interment was in the Methodist Protestant Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Charles W. Rush took place yesterday afternoon from the residence, 1813 Duke street. Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of St. Paul's Church, and Rev. Nelson, of the Theological Seminary, conducted the services. The pallbearers were Messrs. O. W. Fletcher, Alfred Lucas, Milton Owsling, Thomas Carter, Stewart Watkins and Brooke Carter. The interment was in Bethel Cemetery. Alexandria Council, No. 33, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body.

The funeral of Thomas J. Reynolds, colored, who died Tuesday night, took place from Zion Baptist Church yesterday at 2 p. m. The deceased was well respected among the white as well as the colored people. The funeral was very largely attended. Lancaster Lodge of Odd Fellows and the congregation of Zion Church, of which he was a trustee, followed the remains to the cemetery in a body.

FIGHT.

About five o'clock Saturday evening considerable excitement was caused west of the W. & O. depot by a row between Samuel Prentice, sr., and Samuel Prentice, jr., of Fairfax county, and some colored men. The white men entered a and, for some reason, had been followed by a colored man who is engaged in a place. A fight followed in which a colored man took a hand. A crowd gathered and Lieutenant Smith and Officer Roberts proceeded to the scene. The darkies vanished in the meantime, but the officers took the two white men in custody. They each left collateral for their appearance this morning. Later Officers Talbot and Beach arrested Joseph Dudley and Jerry McLean, the two colored men who, it is alleged, were participants in the fight. The latter were brought before the Police Court this morning, but in the absence of material witnesses the case was continued. The two white men failed to show themselves and forfeited their collateral.

YESTERDAY.

Palm Sunday, commemorating the entrance of Christ into Jerusalem, and marking the beginning of Holy Week, the most solemn season of the Christian year, was observed in many of the churches yesterday. While the most pretentious observance was restricted to the Catholic churches, the day was marked with special services in the Episcopal churches and a few others. All the houses of worship were well filled. In St. Mary's Church the morning services consisted of the blessing and distribution of the palms and the singing of mass. The gospel of the mass was taken up by the singing of the Passion of Christ, in which both the choir and the priests participated. At the M. E. Church South last night Rev. E. V. Regester, presiding elder of Washington district, preached his farewell sermon prior to going to Baltimore, where he had been transferred by the recent Methodist Conference.

THE ALLEGED MURDERERS.
Commonwealth Attorney S. G. Brent and Chief of Police Goods yesterday visited the city jail and held a conference with the negro Smith, who turned state's evidence and furnished the information that led to the arrest of Richard Pines, Calvin Johnson and Eugene Dorsey, all colored, who are still in the Fairfax county jail, charged with murdering and robbing Walter F. Schultz on the night of the 6th ultimo. It is supposed that the defendants will attempt to prove an alibi, but the Commonwealth, it is said, has evidence to refute this. It is not known at present when the accused will be placed on trial in the Corporation Court.

THE PASSOVER.

The Israelites of this city will celebrate the Feast of Passover in their synagogue on north Washington street tonight. Tomorrow afternoon (Sater or instruction) services will be held in the Sunday school room of the synagogue. Generally this part of the Passover feast is conducted by the heads of families, when the origin of the feast is explained to the householders. At the Sater services the children of members of the congregation will meet when the history of the angel of death passing over Egypt and smiting the first born and the subsequent exodus of the children of Israel will be recited.

A. L. I.

Tonight, at 8 o'clock, Mayor Jas. E. King will inspect the Alexandria Light Infantry, preliminary to the inspection next Monday night by Major Mallory, of the regular army. The inspection will be in the khaki service uniform, and in heavy marching order, showing the company in full equipment, ready to take the field for active service. Both inspections will be open to the public.

ST. MARY'S ALUMNAE.

The alumnae of St. Mary's Academy held its annual meeting at the academy yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers for the year: Miss B. T. Greene, Washington, president; Miss Mary Harlow, Washington, vice-president; Miss Ella Hill, secretary; Mrs. F. T. Quinn, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Bushford, Del Ray, Alexandria county, historian.

Keep your feet dry. "Try a pair of the celebrated" Walk Over Shoes, J. A. Marshall & Co., 422 King street.

PREPARING FOR HOME-COMING WEEK.

A meeting of the executive committee for old Home-coming Week was held at the Chamber of Commerce at 10 o'clock today. There were present: Messrs. W. A. Smoot, chairman; J. M. Hill, vice chairman, and Messrs. M. P. Greene, R. S. Barrett, O. B. Swan, M. B. Harlow, C. O. Leabaster, ex-fido, and G. L. Bothe, treasurer. Mr. Barrett presented a very interesting statement of probable expenses, after which there was some discussion. It was decided to invite a number of gentlemen to act with the committee. The meeting adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock this evening in the same place.

The committee of firms to arrange for the celebration of Home-coming Week, met this morning in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, but adjourned to meet again tonight.

The military committee will meet at the Armory of the Alexandria Light Infantry tonight at 7 o'clock.

Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows has appointed the following committee on old Home-coming Week: J. T. O'Mera, Geo. W. Bantz and J. W. Hinken. Secretary Wedderburn desires to call attention to the fact that the general committee will meet at the Surprise theatre at 2 o'clock next Wednesday, and while notices have been sent to all committees appointed by various organizations that have reported, he is of the opinion that several committees have been appointed who have not reported their names. These and all other organizations interested who have not heretofore appointed committees are requested to do so and to have them to report their names and addresses to his office at once, and also to be present at the meeting on Wednesday.

SURPRISE THEATRE.

The Surprise Theatre management are always on the alert for some good surprise to offer its patrons, and this week they have succeeded in getting together an exceptionally fine show. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday they offer Edmund O'Connell and Beatrice Golden, who will present a very laughable comedy sketch, said to be far above the average, the Bland Sisters, a very clever singing and dancing team, direct from New York city, where they have been playing at all the leading vaudeville houses, and last, but not least, Dave Barry, in a high class refined musical act that must be seen to be appreciated. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday there will be an entire change and the following acts will be given: Gaylor and Jefferson, in a comedy sketch, "A Woman's Way"; George and Beatrice Wells, said to be a very funny sketch team, and Bert Geyer, who does some remarkable feats of balancing himself on all old things at all. Come see the show tonight and have a good laugh.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:
Samuel Prentice, sr., and Samuel Prentice, jr., charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.
Joseph Dudley and Jerry McLean, both colored, charged with similar offenses, had their cases continued.
Two young white men, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.
A white man charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.
A young man, charged with being drunk in the street, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.
John Hughes, charged with a similar offense, was fined $2.50.
Elias Pettit, charged with assaulting Mary Cole, was dismissed.
Arthur Young, colored, charged with fast driving, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

WELL RECOMMENDED.

Experience is the best teacher—the only teacher. The chronic crosspatch doesn't know the joy of being kind. The miser cannot know the happiness of giving or spending money to help some one—he has not had the experience. The man who is bound down by business obligations, social ties, political applications, religious fears and superstitions, doesn't know freedom, for he has not experienced it. If you want to win at gambling, don't gamble. If you want justice in this life, you'll find it in the dictionary. But if you want to see a continuation of excellent vaudeville accompanied by the best song and dance artists on the American stage go to the Opera House tonight. One picture among the many good ones tonight will be "The Inauguration Parade." As this is the first time this picture has been shown it will naturally attract an unusual crowd.

EDGAR ALLEN POE.

The Elite Picture Company will tonight present a complete change of pictures. "Edgar Allen Poe," a beautiful picture, scored and neglected in life, he has now become the cornerstone of American literature. "My Good Husband Led Astray," "On the Zambesi River" and "Saved by His Dog." The Elite Company as a novelty will give a drawing every night this week; of two umbrellas. Drawing after the first show, the lucky number must be in the house.

COLORED MAN INJURED.

James Minor, colored, who had secreted himself over one of the boilers of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company's works last Saturday night in order to obtain a warm berth, fell a distance of about twenty feet to the floor yesterday morning, fracturing his left arm and seriously injuring himself otherwise. Minor was discovered by a watchman and later Officers Sampson and Rawlett conveyed the injured man to the Alexandria Hospital where he was attended by Drs. Delaney and Waffield.

DEATHS.

Mrs. John M. Stearns, living near the Theological Seminary, died yesterday evening. The deceased leaves besides her husband several children.

Mr. Ernest Brown, a native of Alexandria, died in Washington, yesterday. The deceased was a brother of Mr. George Brown, of this city. He leaves a widow and several children.
